

How to Use the ArcGIS Online (AGOL) Map

Wilderness Inventory and Evaluation Process
Santa Fe National Forest Plan Revision

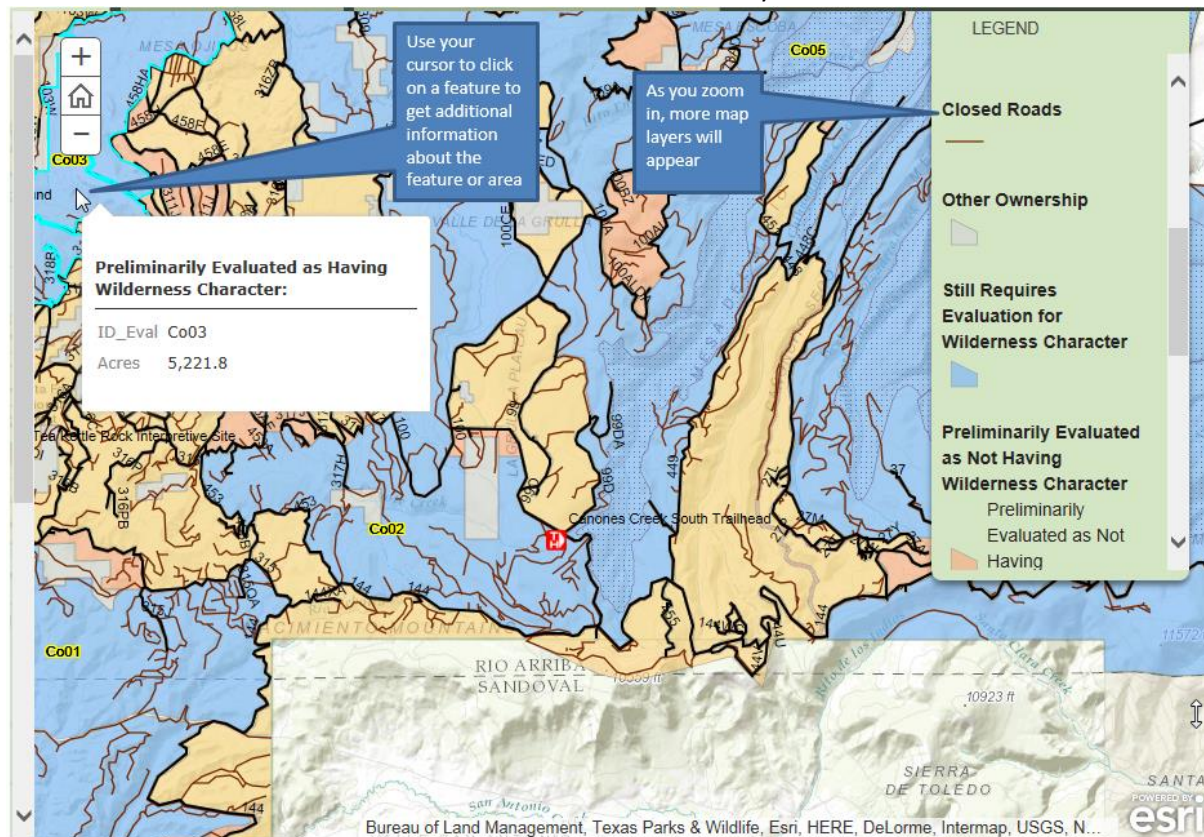

Please be patient. It may take a few minutes for all the map layers to appear depending on your internet connection.

1. Go to the Santa Fe National Forest Plan Revision website and click on the link to the ArcGIS Online (AGOL) Map www.fs.usda.gov/goto/santafeforestplan
2. Select either the Step 1 Inventory Tab and the Step 2a Under Evaluation Tab to view the AGOL maps
3. To navigate around the map and view the legend:

4. To view more detailed information about a feature or area use your cursor and click:

Troubleshooting:

The map may be slow to load all of the map content. It may take a few minutes to load. You may need to Refresh the map by using your F5 button.

Alternative methods of viewing the maps and map content can be found on the SFNF's Forest Plan Revision webpage where PDF maps, shapefiles, and Google Earth KMLs are available.
